

#MamaNyoSquad's 2nd Inception Anniversary
Presenter's Transcript

Hello, and thank you for celebrating two years with #MamaNyoSquad. I'm thebelovedmoon -- aka 🍷🌸 Aga-chuu 🍷🌸, the General Manager.

These last few months have been hectic as I've become very busy unlike the last year where I was very active on this development. To give you a recap of what happened during those months:

- I've decided to try my hand at streaming once again, with my first official invocation on the 5th of July 2022 via Twitch. Since then, it evolved from casual gaming to authoring stories that matter -- including Venus Island Diaries which we know and love since its rewrite.
- I became heavily involved in the VTuber universe, the most recent being that I'm now a part of Suzu Puyo's community moderation team. She's one of my closest friends and since then she's been super grateful for my assistance so far.
- In the most up-to-date news, I became associated with her agency -- AuroraLiveVR. Since that notion, I've been more involved in keeping the community that I fostered in these past few months safe and accessible to all, without the need to worry about the negativities.

On par with this, it's also a little sad that our Social & Web Manager -- Emmanuel Ortega -- isn't with us to commemorate this historic event, reason being that he was being limited due to his phone screen breakage. But he's still around, supporting as much as he can to this project. Were it not for him, I will not be where I am right now.

Meanwhile, I did some of the major improvements within the framework during those times. Here are as follows:

- The major website overhaul since its re-invocation in April 2022. We firmly understood that it was the decision of our previous provider -- Bookmark, which handles the backend of our website since its initial provision last 2021 -- to restrict and sunset the "Freemium" model due to an influx of new customers, but our efforts which have enabled us to be productive and manageable across a wide variety of areas have been wasted. Our open letter is still active on the GitHub Repository under README, but we're working on provisioning it as a separate page soon.
- In response to the previous bullet, #MamaNyoSquad is already a part of GitHub as we began our initial restructuring based on the initial layout of ReactOS Philippines -- now ReactSquad. On par with this, as the head of my own brand -- tbmassoc -- I've announced that #MamaNyoSquad will be among the two key brands in recognizing the communities. You can

- Since that same time that we announced our transition to open-source, we've begun our major rewrite of our first publishing project -- Venus Island Diaries. As the Author, I'm excited that more chapters and scenes are being considered and have been inspired by what I've read so far and the existing DOA lore. As it's still in progress and aimed for longer episodes, we project that its completion will be in a few years depending on activity. Also, we're streaming the writing proper every Saturday (unless changed) on <https://twitch.tv/thebelovedmoon>.

And now, it's time for DOAXVV Events:

- The Japanese Edition celebrates its 5th Anniversary last 15 November, just 4 days before #MamaNyo19. In light of this, they've also introduced the new outfit for the very first Venus -- Misaki, the True Colors Series. Let's take a look at her PV.
- Also on the Japanese Edition: The Venus Island's resident nurse and everyone's Big Sister -- Sayuri -- celebrates her third year of inception! Introductory outfits can be yours with Paid V-Stones when you draw them from the Gacha screen.
- The Global Edition introduces us to the Dolce Outfit Series for the first time, and our precious Symbol and the epitome of absolute beauty -- Mama Nyo -- is the first to wear it! Although already ended, another Venus took its place -- Kokoro -- which you can still draw her Dolce Outfit with Paid V-Stones as of publishing this video.
- We're now introduced to the 25th Venus for those in the Global Edition -- Koharu! Let's take a look at her PV for those who missed it. Her introductory Event is still ongoing until 7 November at 7pm UTC.

Before we go, we would like to thank the following people who made it possible:

- My greatest ally and trustee who has been with me since the "life restart" -- Emmanuel Ortega -- for everything that you do. You've been a great source of my inspiration and I couldn't have been more grateful to have you on board.
- Jack and Aura -- the pioneers of Dead or Alive Universe -- for inspiring us and the whole of Publishing for Venus Island Diaries and beyond.
- Aura Ostara and Suzu Puyo (AuroraLiveVR) -- my greatest inspirations and strongholds that fostered the communities we shared. They were among those that formally introduced me to the VTuber space and since then have been close to them all my life. Were it not for them, I wouldn't be motivated enough to give them back tenfold, one at a time.

- Akemi Satou -- the Japanese CV of our Symbol, Nyotengu -- for inspiring future voice talents and everyone to be dynamic and creative against all odds of life. We'll celebrate every moment together.
- AuroraLiveVR for their uncompromising care and commitment towards their talents -- including Suzu Puyo. Your example has inspired me as the General Manager to take care of what we do best as a brand.
- And finally, my love of my life -- Katherine -- for her unparalleled support and care in my personal life, especially during times of peril. I'm so honored to be a part of your family and hope to foster this intimate relationship that we both shared, together. Like the new Owner and his wife, I hope our chemistry stays the same.

And with that, I formally wrap up the 2nd Edition of #MamaNyoSquad's Inception Anniversary. It may be short, but we know that good times are right up ahead of us! We should keep our heads up and face the challenges together.

Happy Birthday, Tina; and Happy Anniversary, #MamaNyoSquad!
